Volume 4, Issue 23

Dear Parents,

Because of the short week, this newsletter will serve for both this week and next week. The next newsletter I will send out will not be until March 4, 2019.

This week, 3B will continue to go to the computer lab to type out their written Hero reports and speeches. We will also begin a timeline of our heroes either this week or next. It's always fun to see the 'average' age our heroes were when they were at their most successful. March 5th will be our American Heroes Wax Museum. I will send more information out soon regarding what time it begins and costumes.

I will email parents updates of where their child stands towards their 3rd quarter AR goals. I have also give weekly updated AR goal lists to every student. They always know where they stand. We only have a couple weeks left in the quarter. About half of the students have reached their middle goal and most of those students have met their high goal. If you know your child has been putting off their AR tests, please give them friendly reminders to get those taken. Students must reach their medium AR goal in order to be a part of the AR party at the end of the quarter. Please urge your students to keep reading. ALL OF THESE DAYS OFF IS A GOOD TIME TO GET SOME GOOD READING IN!!! I would love for everyone to make the AR party!

Because of the snow day last week, we will take the 4.3 reading and spelling test when they come back on Wednesday, 2/20/19. Reading Unit 4.4 will be an extended unit. Kids will take their pretest on Thursday, 2/21/19 for their Spelling words but they will not take the weekly reading test, or spelling posttest until next week—3/1/19. I, typically, extend this unit since it is during American Heroes. With the snow days, we need to schedule time to type and practice our speeches.

If you are planning on joining us for 3rd Grade Night at the K, Royals ticket money must be in by Friday, 2/22/19 to secure our seats and insure that we will be seated together. I will attach information

Have a great week! Carolyn Bible
